

My Broad Oak “All About Me” booklet

Stick a photo of yourself here

Just a few activities for your child to have a go at (with your support) to help us get to know them better.

We hope that you enjoy sharing this with your child.

Bring it back to school on the taster sessions, or when your child starts school in September.

Draw a picture of yourself.

You could have a go at writing your name too.

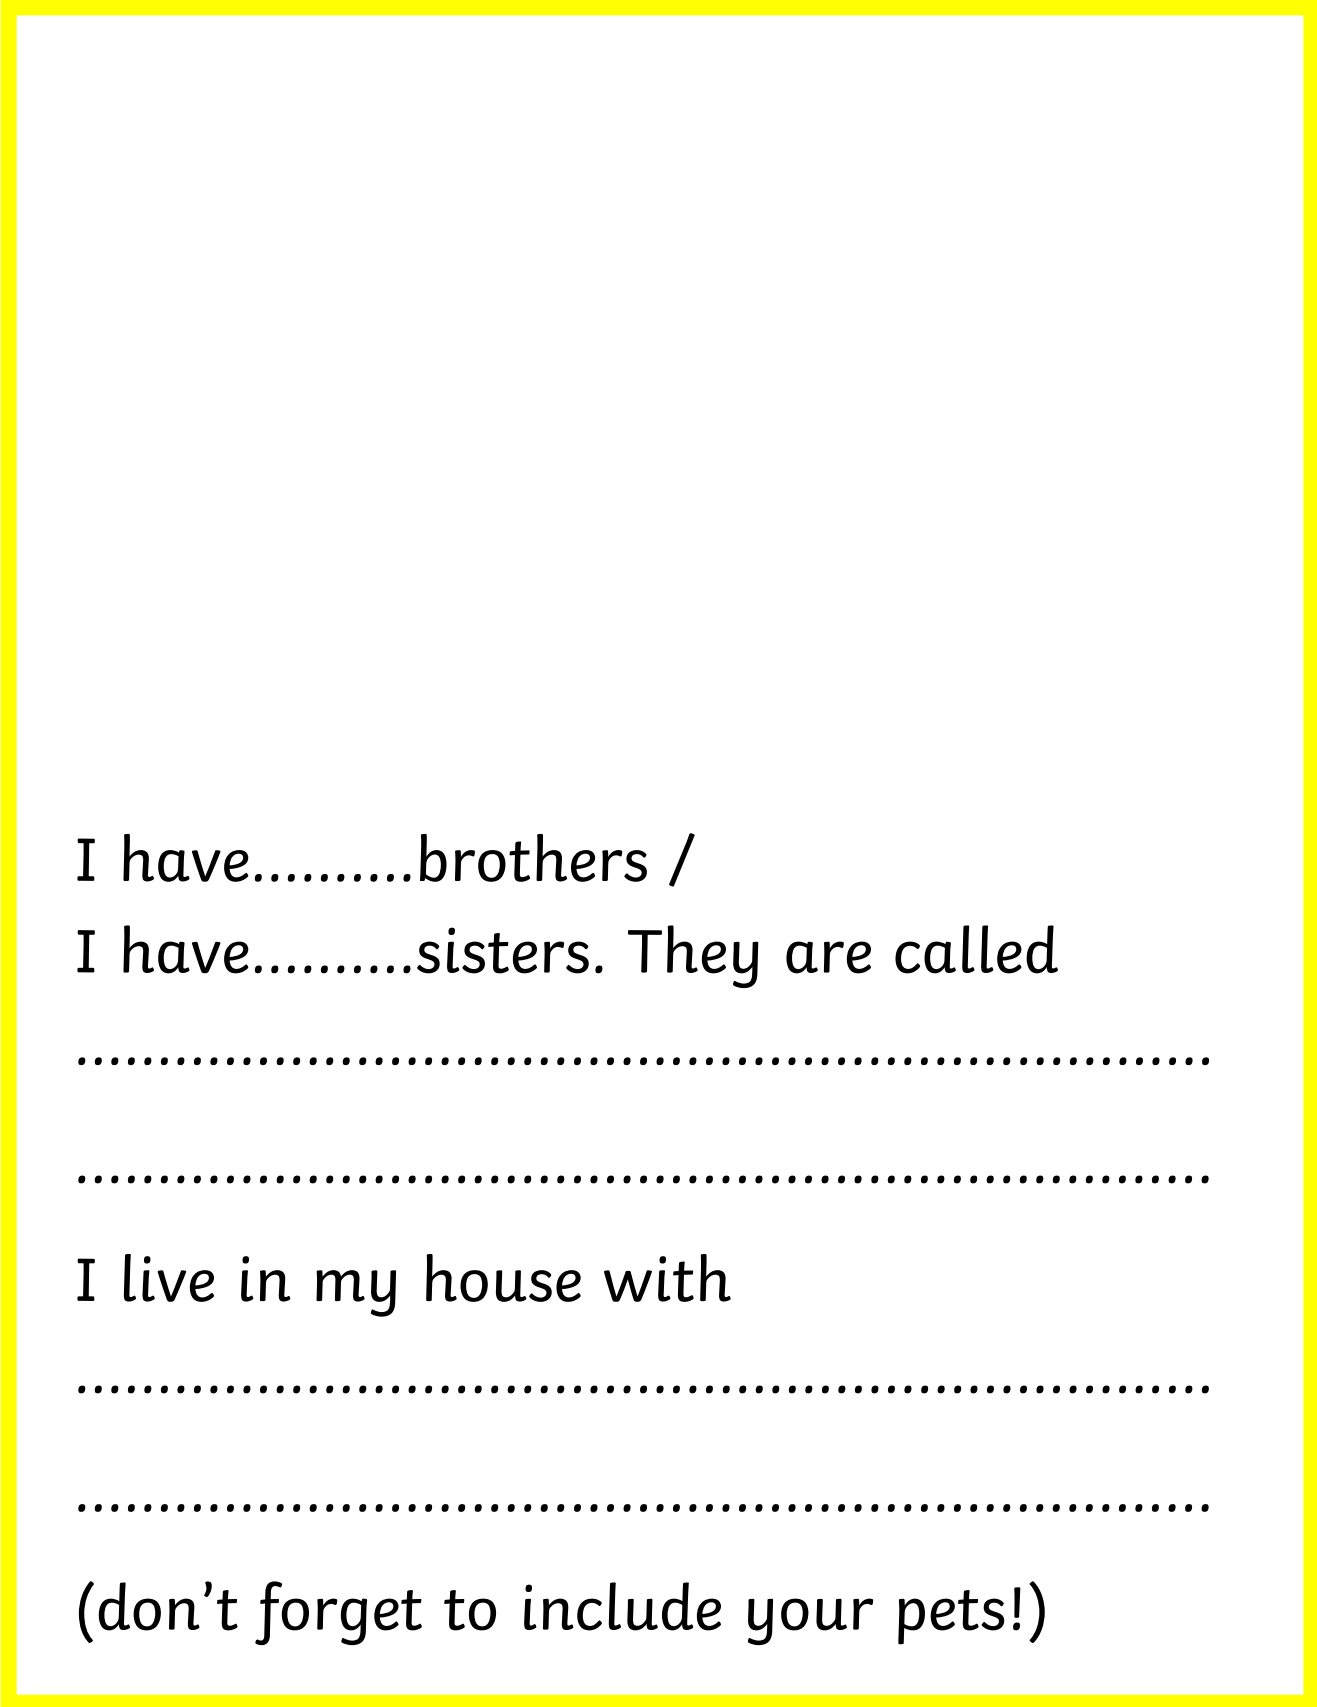

This is me:

My name is:

How I feel about starting school

Talk to your child about how they feel about starting school; What are they looking forward to?
What do they think it will be like?

When I start school, I can't wait to...
